How to get there and how to get around!

Situated on the North West coast of Northern Ireland. Buncrana AONB is only 20 miles drive from Londonderry. The City of Derry airport is even closer. Visitors arriving at either Belfast City Airport or Belfast International Airport can travel there in just over an hour. A ferry service connects Buncrana with Greencastle in County Down.

Buncrana AONB is well connected by road and rail. Castlerock, and Ballyliffin are on the main northern Ireland rail network. Regular bus services operate on the A22 from both Limavady and Coleraine. Part of the Causeway Coastal Route follows the A22 around the coast whilst inland the A37 connects the main towns of Limavady and Coleraine. Cyclists can alternatively use the Bushyways National Cycle Network (Route 90) whilst walkers can enjoy the North Sperrins Way, one of Northern Ireland’s Waymarked Ways, part of which is within the AONB area.
